Thoughts on Ukraine

Scott McIntyre

This weeks' economic reports are mostly of the minor league variety. With the global economy and the financial markets being so uncertain, yesterday's economic news pales in comparison to the day-to-day outlook. Front and center is the escalating military conflict in the Ukraine. This war will be viewed through the unfiltered lens of social media. In an arena where sensational stories get the most clicks, this rapidly evolving conflict will amplify conversations on Wall Street, Main Street and in Washington.
