FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This interview contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause our actual results, performance or achievements to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements anticipated in such statements. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made and, except as required by law, we do not assume any duty to update forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements concerning such things as our plans, objectives, strategies, expectations, intentions and other statements that are not statements of historical fact, and may be identified by words such as "anticipates," "believes," "building," "continue," "could," "estimates," "expects," "focus," "forecasts," "goal," "grow," "growth," "intends," "may," "might," "outlook," "plan," "position," "probable," "progressing," "projects," "seeks," "should," "target," "view," "will" or "would" or the negative of these words and phrases or similar words or phrases. For discussion of factors that may impact these forward-looking statements, see the risk factors described in Hilltop Holdings Inc.'s most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and subsequent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and other reports that it has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. All forward-looking statements are qualified in their entirety by this cautionary statement.
